• ABOUT US •

In 2002, Isidro and Maria Vazquez realized their dream of owning a restaurant – a dream that their daughter, Liz, carries on today. The name honors Isidro, who has always been known as “Tio Chilo” to friends and family, and who infamously keeps a chili pepper in his pocket. A pillar of the Mission District, Tio Chilo’s welcomes all visitors like family and serves authentic Mexican food that makes you feel like you’re eating in mom’s kitchen.
