Notice of Medicare Non-Coverage

Patient name:

Patient number:

The Effective Date Coverage of Your Current Home Health Services
Services Will End:

- Your Medicare provider and/or health plan have determined that Medicare probably will not pay for your current Home Health services after the effective date indicated above.
 - You may have to pay for any services you receive after the above date.

Your Right to Appeal This Decision

- You have the right to an immediate, independent medical review (appeal) of the decision to end Medicare coverage of these services. Your services will continue during the appeal.
 - If you choose to appeal, the independent reviewer will ask for your opinion. The reviewer also will look at your medical records and/or other relevant information. You do not have to prepare anything in writing, but you have the right to do so if you wish.
 - If you choose to appeal, you and the independent reviewer will each receive a copy of the detailed explanation about why your coverage for services should not continue. You will receive this detailed notice only after you request an appeal.
 - If you choose to appeal, and the independent reviewer agrees services should no longer be covered after the effective date indicated above;
 - Neither Medicare nor your plan will pay for these services after that date.
 - If you stop services no later than the effective date indicated above, you will avoid financial liability.

How to Ask For an Immediate Appeal

- You must make your request to your Quality Improvement Organization (also known as a QIO). A QIO is the independent reviewer authorized by Medicare to review the decision to end these services.
- Your request for an immediate appeal should be made as soon as possible, but no later than noon of the day before the effective date indicated above.
- The QIO will notify you of its decision as soon as possible, generally no later than two days after the effective date of this notice if you are in Original Medicare. If you are in a Medicare health plan, the QIO generally will notify you of its decision by the effective date of this notice.
- Call your QIO at: (Health Services Advisory Group) at 1-800-841-1602 or TDD 1-800-881-5980 to appeal, or if you have questions.

See page 2 of this notice for more information.

If You Miss The Deadline to Request An Immediate Appeal, You May Have Other Appeal Rights:

- If you have Original Medicare: Call the QIO listed on page 1.
- If you belong to a Medicare health plan: Call your plan at the number given below.

Call patient's representative the day notice is issued. (Date of conversation is the date of the receipt of the NONMC). ID self and give organization, contact name and number, purpose of call (right to file an appeal) and describe the appeal right being discussed (e.g. QIO vs expedited).
Inform representative that skilled services will no longer be covered beginning on: (date) _____ and financial responsibility starts on (date) _____
Advise representative of appeal rights. (You must read directly from the letter)
Advise representative that an appeal must be phoned to HSAG by 12:00 pm the following day of receipt of the NOMNC or phone call.
Provide the representative with the QIO name (HSAG) and phone number listed in the appeal section of the letter. Provide address, fax or other method of communication needed by representative for QIO to receive appeal in a timely fashion.
Inform representative how to get a detailed notice describing why the enrollee's services are not being covered
Provide at least one phone number of an advocacy organization or 1-800-MEDICARE
Confirm the telephone contact by written notice mailed same day.
If direct phone contact cannot be made, including leaving voice mail, mail the notice to the representative, certified mail, return receipt requested. (If the Medical Group is sending the certified mail, the Facility must notify the Medical Group immediately that certified mail is required.) (If the Facility sent the certified mail, and HSAG is processing an appeal, the certified returned receipt must be submitted to HSAG. If not submitted, the appeal may be decided in favor of the member solely due to lack of the receipt which is the evidence of timely notification.)
Document that representative verbalizes understanding of the information provided.
