Spring Break 2023

< Our first stop on our road trip was to the Grand Canyon, AZ where we stayed for 2 days. What a spectacular sight at every turn. We hiked the South Rim for about 4 miles. It was cold with snow on the ground in some places, but it was worth it. I hadn't been since I was about 8 years old.

> Zion National Park, in Utah. We camped in our trailer for 4 nights. Zion is my current favorite place in the US. Everywhere you looked was the most beautiful views. We had two nice days and one day of rain that covered the mountain tops in snow.

< Day trip to Bryce Canyon, UT. We went the day it rained in Zion not realizing it would be a blizzard at Bryce. It was fun to be in the snow but not many views to enjoy. We plan to go back during the summer sometime in the future.

Holiday Highlight

April 28th – Celebrate Arbor Day

Arbor Day was started by Julius Sterling & Caroline Morton in Nebraska, when they planted a wide variety of trees and shrubs on 160 acres of a flat stretch of desolate plain.

The first ever Arbor Day was held on April 10, 1872 after Morton proposed a day that would encourage all Nebraskans to plant trees in their community. It was a wild success with approximately 1 million trees were planted.

On April 15, 1907, President Theodore Roosevelt, issued an "Arbor Day Proclamation to the School Children of the United States. But it wasn't until 1970, that Arbor Day became recognized nationwide thanks to the efforts of President Richard Nixon.

Arbor Day is celebrated on the last Friday in April. It is marked by the planting of trees and emphasizes caring for them as a way to sustainably protect our planet's natural resources.

“Other holidays repose upon the past; Arbor Day proposes for the future.”

— Julius Sterling Morton

Ford Mustang

This happened in April

The Ford Mustang is officially unveiled by Henry Ford II at the World's Fair in Flushing Meadows, New York, on April 17, 1964. That same day, the new car also debuted in Ford showrooms across America and almost 22,000 Mustangs were immediately snapped up by buyers. Named for a World War II fighter plane, the Mustang was one of the first vehicles that came to be known as a "pony car." Ford sold more than 400,000 Mustangs within its first year of production, far exceeding sales expectations.

Within three years of its debut, some 500 Mustang fan clubs had cropped up. In March 1966, the 1 millionth Mustang rolled off the assembly line. In honor of the Mustang's 35th anniversary in 1999, the U.S. Postal Service issued a stamp commemorating the original model. In 2004, Ford built its 300 millionth car, a 2004 Mustang GT convertible 40th anniversary model. Over the decades, the Mustang underwent numerous evolutions, and it remains in production today. www.history.com
