This PRIDE Month, We Recognize Homelessness Disproportionately Affects LGBTQ+ People

Members of the LGBTQ community often face discrimination in many areas of their lives, but especially regarding housing status. LGBTQ individuals, especially youth, are highly overrepresented in the homeless population. They face difficulty in trying to find support services, especially since they may be harassed in shelters by peers or staff and therefore feel uncomfortable and unsafe seeking help. In addition, some transgender individuals have even been turned away from shelters solely due to their gender identity, or have been subjected to verbal, physical, and sexual abuse when forced to stay with members of the sex they were assigned at birth (especially in the case of transgender

Resource Library: Diversity, Equity, Inclusion

Rapid Rehousing Roundtable Series: Advancing Equity

Earlier this year, HUD sponsored the first round of the roundtable discussions to identify, imagine, and increase trends that support innovation in RRH services and programs. Practitioners, policy-makers, and people with lived experience of homelessness shared their thoughts, challenges, and promising practices on topics including racial equity, assertive engagement, and landlord recruitment.

TED Talk: How to get serious about diversity and inclusion in the workplace

Imagine a workplace where people of all colors and races are able to climb every rung of the corporate ladder -- and where the lessons we learn about diversity at work actually transform the things we do, think and say outside the office. How do we get there? In this candid talk, inclusion advocate Janet Stovall shares a three-part action plan for creating workplaces where people feel safe and expected to be their unassimilated, authentic selves.

NoCO CoC Partner Spotlight

Community Economic Defense Project (CEDP) mission is to partner with low-income and working people to build economic and racial equity. We do this by confronting economic abuse and investing in community wealth. We use an ever evolving set of legal, economic and advocacy tools to challenge and dismantle unjust system, building quickly towards a world where all people have what they need to live and thrive.

CEDP provides:

- Financial assistance for people behind on rent of mortgage payments
- Legal services and representation for people facing eviction, foreclosure, and housing insecurity
- Resource and system navigation

Coordinated Assessment Housing Placement System (CAHPS)

CAHPS is the community-driven process to identify, assess, refer, and house all people experiencing homelessness in Weld and Larimer Counties.

Since 2016, the CAHPS process has helped house over 1500 households.

Through CAHPS, the NoCO CoC is participating in the Community Solutions Built for Zero Initiative to reach Functional Zero to end Veteran and Chronic homelessness.
