

OSHA COMPLIANCE TRAINING

PURPOSE

To provide dental office staff with important information about OSHA (Occupation Safety & Health Administration), review guidelines and responsibilities. Annual OSHA Training is required by law. It is a Federal and State Regulation.

The training session includes a Check List design for a dental office, an attendance list, a Certificate, and follow-up email of findings.

Existing PDS Accounts $350.00 | New Accounts $450.00

OBJECTIVE TOPICS

To be able to save all lives, prevent injuries, and protect healthcare workers' health.

- Required Written Plans, Hazard Communication, Exposure Control Plans, Safety Devices, Fire Prevention Plans, Emergency Action Plans, Manual Requirements.
- Recordkeeping, personnel medical records requirements and maintenance.
- Employee Training Areas; blood borne pathogens, training records, and more.
- Injury Reporting, documentation, and maintenance.
- Labor Law Posters, Federal and State.
- Standard Precautions, disinfection requirements and proper use, PPE (personal protective equipment) requirements.
- Hand Hygiene, proper washing, and frequency.
- Exits proper signage and lighting.
- Fire Extinguishers, appropriate rating, and inspection.
- First-Aid training and Materials Needed.
- Eye Wash, accessibility, and records.
- Medical Waste Handling, proper use of sharps containers and documentation.
- Evacuation Plans posted and requirements.
- Electrical Hazards, emergency lights hazards and documentation.
- MSDS Management, obtaining, chemicals inventory and storage.
- Labeling, OSHA's new labeling requirements - Global Labeling
- Laundry Procedures, PPE requirements and proper handling.
- Requirements tailored to office environment.

Updates will be emailed at no charge to the practice for 12 months after the training.

PROFESSIONAL DENTAL SERVICES

703-409-1992 info@pdstrainingva.com professionaldentalservices.org

HIPAA & OSHA COMPLIANCE TRAINING Plus CPR CERTIFICATION

Professional Dental Services provides educational information only.

Such information does not constitute legal advice or assures compliance with any law, rule, or regulation.