

ERASMUS ALEXANDER

BIOGRAPHY (100 & 150 WORD COUNT)

150 word bio:

Erasmus Alexander is an emerging artist and active-duty Air Force member whose passion for music, specifically singing, has been ingrained since childhood. With a background in church and school choirs, as well as directing various ensembles, Erasmus draws inspiration from a lineage of musical influence, including his great-grandmother, a choir director and songwriter. While serving as an aviator in the Air Force, Erasmus has traveled extensively, experiencing diverse cultures and cities around the world. Although military service temporarily paused his singing pursuits, he rediscovered his love for music in 2017. Joining the Congressional Chorus in Washington, D.C., he participated in notable productions and collaborations, such as the American Pops Orchestra's "I Am What I Am" and the Atlantic Council's Distinguished Leadership Awards. Following the release of his debut EP "Erasmus" in November 2022, which garnered two DC Wammie Music Award nominations, Erasmus is featured in the US Air Force's "Artisan Air" series, highlighting serving artists. Embracing a newfound appreciation for life and motivated by his late grandmother's advice, Erasmus continues to pursue his musical journey.

100 word bio:

Erasmus Alexander, an emerging artist and Air Force member, finds solace and joy in music. From childhood church choirs to directing ensembles, his passion for singing runs deep. While serving as an aviator, Erasmus explored the world and encountered diverse cultures. A ten-year hiatus from singing led him to rediscover his love for music in 2017. Joining the Congressional Chorus in Washington, D.C., he collaborated on notable productions and received recognition, including DC Wammie Music Award nominations. With the release of his debut EP "Erasmus" in 2022, featuring two award-nominated songs, Erasmus continues to pursue his musical journey with a renewed belief in living life to the fullest, inspired by his late grandmother's wisdom.