

Client: Whiting Oil & Gas

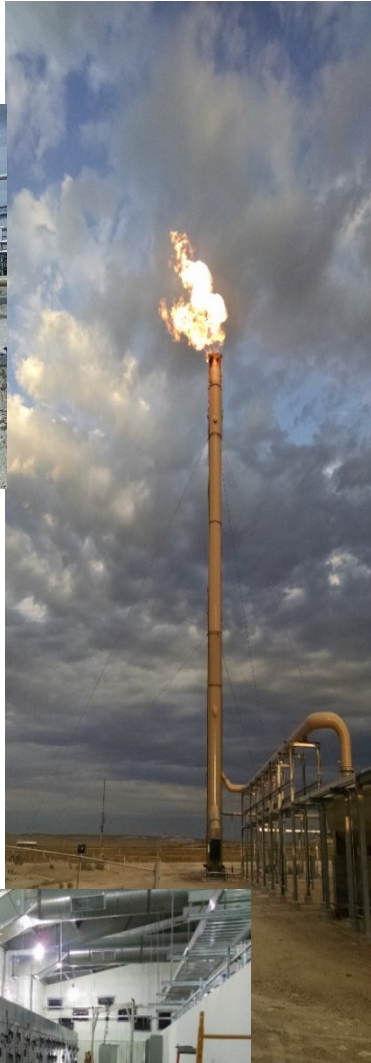

Project: Redtail Gas Plant Phase II Expansion

BENCHMARK HIGHLIGHTS

The expansion project increased the existing plant from 20MMcfd up to 60MMcfd.

- 4,000LF of Duct Bank
- 7,000LF of Cable Tray
- 40,000LF of Conduit
- 7,000+ LF of Heat Trace
- Low and Medium Voltage Switchgear and Transformers
- Over 350 Instruments (Temp. Pressure. Flow. etc.)

- Site Lighting and Building Lighting
- 5 Medium Voltage Compressors
- Amine Skid, propane condensers, Inlet Compressors, Refrigeration Compressors, Flare Stack, Hot Oil Heaters and Separators, Coalescing Filters, NGL Storage Tanks, Water Makeup Tanks

Benchmark Project Management

- Operations manager – Dave Aguiar
- Project Manager – Pete Dobbs
- Quality Control manager- Mark Valenzuela
- Safety Manager – Mac McWilliams & Jim Adams
- Superintendent – Mike Stephens
- General Foreman – John Davis III
- Instrumentation Superintendent – Gene Rhode

Notable Feature

- Active Gas Plant Expansion
- Major Duct Banks
- No Recordable Injuries
- Commissioning Support
- Over 60 Benchmark Employees

Reference/Owner

Whiting Oil and Gas
Contact: Erin O’Hearn
(303)-495-6763

Completion Date:

October 2015

Project Value:

$6,920,000

