To Whom It May Concern:

I was in a very tough position last December 2021 when two of my associate attorneys gave their notice on the same day. A friend of mine recommended The Johnson Group. I had never used a recruiter before and was a bit reluctant at first. But my circumstances were dire, and I needed all the help I could get.

I first spoke with Evan Quan who explained the process to me. Once I signed up, I was introduced to a team of people who would be assisting me with my search. We met over the next couple days for a boarding call over Zoom where they were able to get a better insight on what I was looking for in a candidate. This was a tough job for them as I needed to find two associates and gave them a 1-month time frame to do it. What seemed like the next day, I got a qualified candidate. He was everything we were looking for and officially accepted our job offer after one and a half weeks of working with the Johnson Group.

They delivered as promised and made the process very easy for me. I would recommend the Johnson Group for any business looking for a professional recruiter. I worked mainly with Bevan Richardson and highly recommend him. He was very attentive to what we were looking for and delivered.

Truly,
