The Angel Fraser Logan Dance Company (AFLDC) is a contemporary-based dance company that provides dance instruction to youth while nurturing the talent of emerging professional dance artists and choreographers. Founded in 2004, the Angel Fraser Logan Dance Company is dedicated to providing professional level opportunities to emerging choreographers and young dancers, particularly children and youth in underserved areas in the south part of Miami-Dade County. Seeing a need to provide Miami dance students from low income backgrounds with access to opportunities to train and perform, the Angel Fraser Logan Dance Company was established and since 2004, AFLDC has successfully nurtured the talent of hundreds of children and youth, providing scholarships and opportunities for young dancers in underserved areas in Miami-Dade County including Goulds, West Perrine and Richmond Heights.
