CANADIAN POSTMASTERS ASSOCIATION MEDALLIC FIRST DAY COVER * 1974 COMMEMORATIVE ISSUE No. 4

Honouring the 1976 Olympic Games

As the opening day of the 1976 Olympic summer games to be held in Montreal approaches, many Canadians are taking a new look at the importance of keeping physically fit. This metallic first day cover, issued by the Canadian Postmasters Association, pays tribute to the athletes training for the XXI Olympics and the men, women and children who enjoy physical pastimes.

Continuing the 1976 Olympic games commemorative series begun in 1973, the stamps on this medallic first day cover illustrate two forms of recreation that combine the Canadian's inherent love of nature with physical fitness. The first stamp shows youths hiking through one of the many unspoiled wilderness areas set aside for all to enjoy. The second stamp portrays a family on a bicycle outing. These stamps, designed by Hunter, Straker, Templeton Limited, feature a hidden image of the 1976 Olympic symbol, which can be seen by viewing the stamps at an oblique angle.

The activities depicted on the stamps are incorporated into a single design on the sterling silver first edition proof medal. The medal was sculptured by James Ferrell and minted at The Franklin Mint, Canada.

Throughout the Provinces of Canada, hikers find a special beauty in the rugged valleys and mountains that are inaccessible by roads. For years, Canadians have found delight in taking both short trips along woodland trails and long treks across entire mountain ranges as they combine their appreciation of nature with a robust way of keeping fit.

In recent years bicycling has gained in popularity as a way of keeping in shape and for sightseeing. Many national parks have facilities for cross-country touring and in some cities, authorities have even closed certain streets so urban cyclists can take a Sunday ride without the danger of heavy traffic.

CANADIAN POSTMASTERS ASSOCIATION MEDALLIC FIRST DAY COVER * 1974 COMMEMORATIVE ISSUE No. 5

Honouring Louis St. Laurent

This medallic first day cover, issued by the Canadian Postmasters Association, pays tribute to the life of the Right Honourable Louis Stephen St. Laurent, the 12th Prime Minister of Canada.

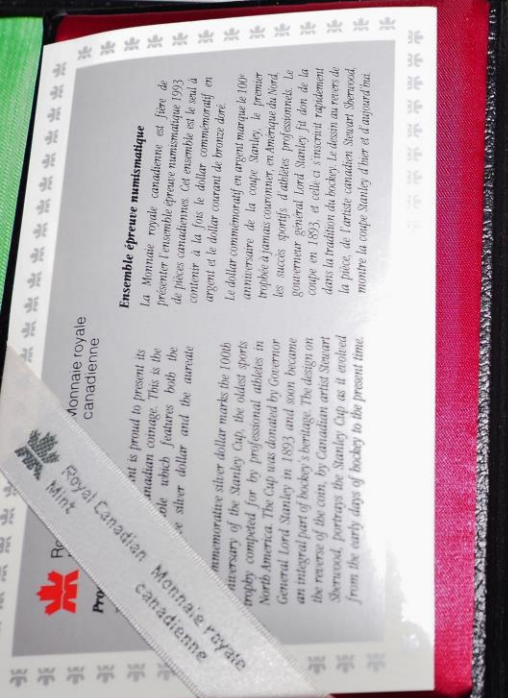

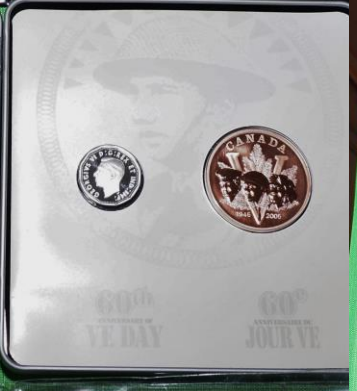

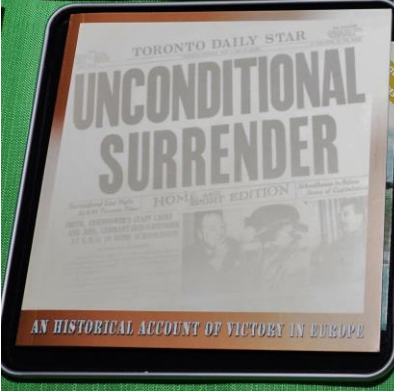

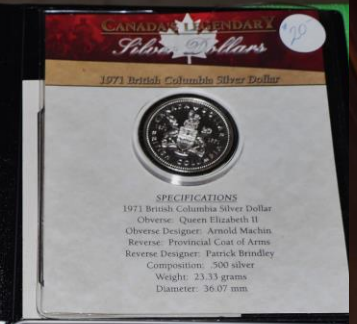

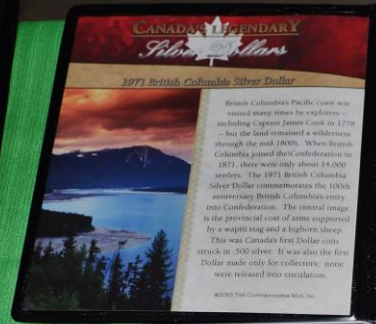

The seven-cent stamp features a pen and ink drawing of the Canadian statesman by David Annesley of Beaverton, Ontario. The sterling silver first edition proof medal, sculptured by Charles R. Ross and minted at The Franklin Mint, Canada, features St. Laurent.

Born in 1882 in the Quebec's Eastern Townships, St. Laurent was a French Canadian father of the modern state. He was graduated from the University of Toronto in 1905 and became one of the leading lawyers of his time.

St. Laurent supported the United Nations and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

In November, 1948 he became the Prime Minister of Canada with the goals of widening the nation's international relations and strengthening national unity. The following spring, under St. Laurent's leadership, all of British North America became united when Newfoundland became the tenth province of Canada.
