Canadian Native
AUTHENTIC CARIBOU HAIR
TUFTINGS & SCULPTURES
buffalo

The Barren, Land and Woodland Caribou have long thrived in the Hudson's Bay region. They have been the source of life for many of the Inuit, Cree and Dene. The Caribou was mainly used as a food source but its antlers were also used for making tools, weapons and needles. The inner core of the antlers' main source of thread and the hide and hair was used to make the warmest, most practical clothing in the world. As a tribute to our northern heritage, we at the Arctic Trading Company, have created a series of scenes depicting northern experiences, as well as the more traditional northern Inuit flower. These beautiful expressions of the north are all individual and hand made to portray the nature respect for the land.

Le caribou du nord et le caribou des bois ont longtemps prospéré dans la région de l'Arctique. Ils ont été la source d'approvisionnement de plusieurs Inuits, Cris et Déné. Le plus de l'écorce de la queue aux antennes, on utilisait les cornes pour fabriquer des outils, des armes et des aiguilles. Le tendre était la source principale de fil pour l'étoffe et la peau et le poil étaient utilisés pour fabriquer les vêtements les plus chauds et les plus pratiques au monde. Pour rendre hommage à notre patrimoine du nord, nous avons créé une série de scènes typiques des expériences du nord, ainsi que des fleurs du nord traditionnelles en vif. Ces objets d'art sont à la main sans autre compagnie de respect pour la nature pour la terre.
