

Statement on residential schools

Kamloops and Marieval are only the beginning. So many children stolen from their families and buried nameless and alone. We cannot fathom the grief and pain felt by their families and communities.

BGC Canada stands with Indigenous communities across the country as they uncover more unmarked graves at the former residential schools and reveal the truth of Canada's history.

National Indian Residential School

24-hour crisis line:

1-866-925-4419